About TASH

The Anna Seethaler Hospital (TASH, Inc.) was founded by Father Scott Seethaler in 2000 after he visited friends and saw a need for quality healthcare for the poor. Oaxaca is the second poorest state in the country; 93% of the people live in extreme poverty. It has the highest infant mortality rate in the country. The illiteracy rate is 25%, and only 10 percent of the people have running water. Between 2000 and 2005, the clinic continued to expand. It is now a full-service small hospital that treats approximately 1,800 patients a month.
